

TALK OF THE TURF.

New Winter Racing Bill May Shut Out Guttentberg and Gloucester.

TURF MEN MUM ABOUT IT.

Bookmaker De Lacey Refused to Sell Pools on Yesterday's Races.

A bill to prohibit winter racing in the State of New Jersey has been introduced in the Legislature at Trenton by Assemblyman Thomas F. Lane, Democratic leader of Union County. Briefly, the bill provides that it shall be unlawful to permit the racing, running, trotting or pacing of horses on any race track in this State (New Jersey) for a purse, prize or other consideration between Nov. 1 in any year and April 1 of the succeeding year. The punishment for a violation of this act is a fine of not less than $1,000 nor more than $5,000, or by imprisonment for not less than six months nor more than two years, or both. Power is placed in the hands of the Governor to order the arrest of such violators of the law, and if the State police force is unable to prevent the violation of the law the militia shall be called upon. All acts or parts of acts inconsistent with the provisions of this act to be and the same are hereby repealed, and that this act shall take effect immediately.

The introduction of the above bill last night looks like a judgment on Guttentberg and Gloucester for racing in such weather as prevailed yesterday. No reasonable excuse can be advanced for racing yesterday. The racing could not be called sport. Perhaps Peter De Lacey, the recognized head of the pool-room men in this city, gave the truthful reason in his utterance to a newspaper man yesterday. He refused to do any business on the races. In explanation he said: "They are running for the pool-room money today, and I don't propose that they shall have mine."

Azrael galloped in an easy winner in her race yesterday, defeating Eleanor St. Patrick and Innovation, all performers of more than ordinary merit. Her odds instead of receding from 6 to 5 to 3 to 1, her position in the race went down to 3 to 5. Her horses run consistently with their odds at Guttentberg.

The combination sent a good thing through yesterday. They put Lyons up on Futura. Judge Burke wanted to know why a good boy was not permitted to ride, and the Haden people pleaded that their regular jockey, N. Hill, was suspended at the post, and that Griffin's shoulder was still lame. The judge reluctantly consented to Lyons riding. Futura opened at 5 to 1 and was backed down to 2 1/2 to 1. Even with the handicap of a stable boy she galloped in an easy winner.

Elect was a hot favorite in the opening race and Mr. Parker cannot complain that starter Juddwell has any grudge against him. Elect was in front when the flag fell and won easily.

Azrael was bid up $400 and Futura was hoisted $500. Both were retained by their owners, who bid the additional $5. The bidder was a stranger.

Troublesome, who was thought by many to be the winner in the fourth race, was left at the post.

Charles Post got a slice of his long deferred good luck. He won odds of 12 to 1, and it is to be hoped that Father Hill's popular son-in-law had a good swell bet down.

The glass portion in the grand stand yesterday cracked and groaned from the force of the heavy winds. It had to be braced with strong beams.

Owners of trotting stallions are reducing the service fee of their horses materially all over the country.

The Guttentberg management have decided that all entries to races on the hill-top shall be free, and that $25 of the purse shall be given to the third horse. The order went into effect today.

Thomas F. Kagan, who has secured the betting privileges at the Ivy City track, declares that he does not know who composes the syndicate which is behind the track. All he knows is that he has been engaged by the manager of the track, a Mr. Quakey, who represents a congressman Campbell. A Mr. Miers of the Store Trust Company, is mentioned as treasurer of the syndicate. It is said that the syndicate that pursues would be paid after each race and that enough money was at hand to pay all expenses for a fortnight.

Kerry Gow was heavily played in the city races yesterday. A strong tip was placed about him. The pool-room patron bragged him called first in the stretch and hugged himself in the belief that it was all over. Elect had no trouble in defeating the good thing.

Parthian's race was no surprise. He never was partial to race going.

Marcellus finally scored a bracket, and his owner landed some snug bets. Jones had to ride hard to beat Bolivar out.

Mrs. Marie isn't bigger than a pint of peanuts, but she has considerable speed. She is improving, she beat False out for third place yesterday.

Monsoon was backed off the boards in the last race, but he didn't show. Lucy Clark, Jockey and Gray Rock all passed him in the last furlong.

DULL DAY ON EXCHANGE.

Prices Become Heavy on Reports of Opposition to Mr. Foster.

Uncertainty Makes Buyers Hesitate.

—Wall Street Affairs.

WALL STREET, Tuesday, Feb. 14.—The trading disposition so pronounced in Wall street yesterday was apparent again today, and the trading was on a small scale.

Runners new thick and fast about the possible action of Secretary Foster and as operators felt they were groping in the dark they decided to adopt a middle course, namely, to steer as close to the wind as possible.

The sales of stocks up to noon were only 75,000 shares.

NO POLICE, LOTS OF BURGLARS.

New York Broker's Residence Saved by His Brother.

MILLBURN, N. J., Feb. 14.—Much uneasiness is felt in this township by the property owners on account of the town being without police protection.

Within the past few nights a number of burglaries have been attempted. John Hurley, employed as night gatekeeper at Wyoming crossing of the D. & W. R. R., saw strange men trying to break into the handsome residence of Walter L. Whittingham, a New York broker.

Hurley hurried to the residence of Townsman H. W. Whittingham, and got him out of bed. Mr. Whittingham, armed with a revolver, accompanied Hurley back to his brother's house. As they approached the house the burglars fled. They had not succeeded in gaining an entrance.

Cures Scrofula

Mrs. F. J. Howell, Medford, Mass., says her mother has been cured of scrofula by the use of one of the bottles of S.S.S. after having had several other remedies without success. She is now reduced to quite a low condition of health, as it was thought she could not live.

INHERITED SCROFULA.
S.S.S. Cured my little boy of hereditary scrofula, which appeared all over his face and body. He is now a healthy child, and I am cured, and no S.S.S. symptoms of the disease remain.
